

Birthday Surprise Party

For last week when her mother was very ill and she stayed a few days. Her sister is there now.

Mr. Willis Littlefield and his wife, Paul, visited his grandfather, 72 years of age, and wife, Sunday.

There was a good attendance at the meeting at I. O. O. F. Hall Saturday night and a total amount of refreshments sold.

McKeen has lost the sight of the right eye some time ago and it is feared he will never see again.

Mr. Will Hersey is in poor health.

Mr. McKeen purchased Mrs. E. K. Littlefield's house.

Mr. Hersey noticed leaves on a tree which he had eaten so thought it must be one of some kind of worm, but before long saw a mouse reaching up and eating them.

Mr. Hersey has a number of men

Barnes Walker, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Barnabas hospital in Portland is getting along well.

C. E. Littlefield has a birch job well advanced. His son, Cyrus and Alfred Swannell are working for him.

Mrs. Lester Briggs spent the day, recently with her sister, Mrs. Lottie Morrill of Newburg.

Mrs. Carl Brown got a nice deer. Randolph Andrews is working on the road at North Lovell.

Ed. Watson, who has been staying at the hotel since the summer has gone to Millbury to see his son in Massachusetts and then will go to St. Petersburg for the winter.

There was a sewing bee for the benefit of Mrs. Wendall McAlister at the library. She lost everything in the fire short time ago.
